

Paradise Orphanage

Kaya, Burkina Faso
August 2016

You will make a difference...

Paradise Orphanage in Kaya, Burkina Faso is the home of 120 very happy children.

They are being cared for by a local family Georges and Esther Sawadogo and their four young adult children.

With no large corporate or government entity overseeing or funding this work the Sawadogo family has been caring for these children solely on donations from friends in the US, Canada and Germany since 2008. All funds donated go directly to the work at the orphanage except for a small Western Union transfer fee. For more information please go to www.kayaskids.org

So why are you getting this letter?

Charles Sawadogo is in Canada now visiting supporting partners and he is of course overwhelmed and excited about this amazing opportunity. He has done quite a few firsts for a young man of 29 in the last weeks; gone swimming, gone fishing, driven across Canada from Halifax to Gravenhurst, Ontario. Seen our schools, seen our houses, visited our churches and so much more! What an opportunity for him!

So how can you help?

It has become very clear that the needs at Paradise Orphanage are beyond what they can do with the limited funds they are receiving. They are depending on God and they need our help!

This year 70 of the 120 children are off to the local High School. For them to attend they must pay an annual amount of $75.00. We can do that! We are asking each of you to make a one time donation to the Paradise Orphanage Scholarship Fund 2016!

These 70 teens will now be able to enter the world holding their heads up high, thanking you and thanking God for the opportunity to continue their education!
